ACDC Report for March 2014

Open Meeting:

The next meeting of the ACDC will be an Open Meeting and will be held on Tuesday, April 8 in the RSL Hall commencing 7.30pm. The ACDC Committee will suspend its normal meeting agenda to allow for members of the community to contribute their ideas in relation to all aspects of life in Auburn. The following members of the community have been invited to speak on the night in respect of their organisation – Lol Hill, Community Liaison Officer with Council, Steve Simpson regarding the Auburn Traders, Brian Byrne regarding the Recreation Park Committee, Kay Lambert regarding the Auburn Branch of the National Trust and Mark Vincent, Principal of the Auburn Primary School.

Light refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting. Come along and have your say. See you there?

CJ Dennis Festival:

Planning has already commenced for the CJ Dennis Festival 2014 that will be held on the weekend of September 14 and 15. The festival will kick-off in the Stables of the Rising Sun Hotel at 10.00am on the Saturday morning with readings from the body of work of CJ Dennis.

On the Saturday evening, commencing 6.30pm, there will be a dinner with a 'Black and White' theme in the Auburn Institute. A prominent, after-dinner speaker has been engaged. Further details will be released next month.

The weekend will culminate on the Sunday afternoon at 2.00pm in the Stables of the Rising Sun Hotel with the presentation of the Max Fatchen Literary Awards for children.

Memorial Park:

Work on the renewal of the park is almost complete. An informal opening will be held in early April to thank the many folk who have committed time and effort to this project.

Friends of the Auburn Cemetery:

As previously reported, the ACDC has established a Friends of the Cemetery group under the enthusiastic leadership of Glen Osborne. New planting has already commenced and a plan has been received from Peter Russell regarding the construction of a Niche Wall that will require Council approval. Work on the heritage scrub on the Eastern boundary will be undertaken in conjunction with the Threatened Flora Officer – Northern and Yorke, Trees for Life.

Peak Body Forum:

The ACDC will be represented at this meeting called by Council for Monday, March 31 at the Tarlee Hall. We will present to the meeting on the plans held by the ACDC for 2014, as reported in the last edition of the Auburn Express.
